As the light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Arise, O Lord!

Hoffmeister-Deis

Arise, O Lord; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight
And turned into hell, the wicked he turned into hell, even the nations that forget God.
Put them in fear, O Lord: let the nations know themselves to be but men.
For they that know thy name will put their trust in thee.
And thou, Lord, wilt not forsake them.
For they that know thy name will put their trust in thee.
And thou, Lord, wilt not forsake them that seek thee.
Arise, O Lord; let not man prevail.

Hymn—God Is My Strong Salvation (Aurelia)

Samuel S. Wesley

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—O Saviour Sweet

Bach-Dickinson

Soloists: Mr. Ross Fogleman, Baritone
Mrs. H. E. Myers, Contralto
Mr. James Throneburg, Baritone

O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Thy Father's will has all Thy mind,
From Heaven Thou hast vouchsafed to come, With men, as Man, to make Thy home.
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, The way to please Thee we would find, Whate'er we have, it comes of Thee, O let us ever near Thee be.
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Who came to earth The lost to find,
Who died to save us on the tree, Our hearts are filled with love to Thee.
Thee with tender care I'll cherish, Live to Thee, Die to Thee;
Thus I shall not perish, But with Thee abide forever,
Joyfully, peacefully Where life endeth never.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

The Communion Service has been instituted as a part of the program of the Duke University Church and, as is the custom, all members and friends of the University community are cordially invited to participate in the service.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday, October 3, at 4:00 o'clock. This will be the first of a series of recitals to be presented during the academic year on the first Sunday of each month.

The program follows:

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Prelude in D Major

"This brilliant work is obviously intended for concert performance. The prelude opens with a free introduction, leading to a long Alla breve (2-2 meter) section in which a short eight-note motive figures prominently in various voices and keys. A richly harmonized Adagio closes the prelude."—Geer.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Choral Prelude

"O God Be Merciful to Me"

Sometimes Bach uses simple treatment of the choral prelude, enhancing the melody with a straight accompaniment.

Louis Claude d'Aquin (1694-1772)

The Cuckoo

d'Aquin, who was born in Paris, became the most popular organist of his day. He played at St. Pauls and it is said that when he improvised all Paris, including the King, thronged to hear him.

Jules Massenet (1842-1912)

The Angelus

The Angelus is from "Scenes Pittoresques." Edwin Arthur Kraft has arranged this familiar work for organ.

Marcel Duprè (1886-)

Vepres Du Commun
Magnificat 6

The Magnificat with subtitle Gloria is from a set of fifteen short pieces. It forms a brilliant finale to the entire group.

Marcel Duprè, eminent French organist and composer, has been teaching in Chicago for the past two summers and now is on concert tour in this country.

Joseph Clokey (1890-)

Mountain Sketches
II Wind in the Pine Trees
III Canyon Walls

Joseph Clokey was born in New Albany, Indiana, August 28, 1890. He has recently retired from teaching at the University of Miami, Florida, to devote all of his time to composition. His writings include organ suites, four operas and many beautiful choral works.

Darius Milhaud (1900-)

Pastorale

This modern Pastorale has the light French touch and lyric impressionism. Darius Milhaud was born at Aix in Provence, France. He is at present Professor of Music at Mills College, California.

Max Reger (1873-1916)

Introduction and Passacaglia

Few modern composers have added so much to the organ literature as Reger. His form is strict, his harmonies original and worthy of careful listening.

This true passacaglia, with its ground bass and interesting variations, builds to a great climax, interweaving intricate harmonies with the pedal theme.

ERASMUS CLUB MEETING

The Erasmus Club will hold its first meeting of the year on Monday, October 4, at 8:00 p.m., in the Green Room of East Duke Building. Dr. Clarence Gohdes will read a paper on "Emerson as a Democrat."

Kathryn Daniel

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.
Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.
He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,
Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful, Have we forgotten our Saviour reigns?
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?

Anthem—The Voice of the Lord

Soloist: Dr. J. H. Phillips, Tenor

Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye sons of might, Ascribe unto the Lord glory and strength.
Ascribe unto the Lord the glory due unto His name; Worship the Lord in the beauty of Holiness.
The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; The God of glory
thundereth,
Even the Lord upon many waters The voice of the Lord is powerful.
The voice of the Lord is full of majesty. The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars;
Yea, the Lord breaketh in pieces the cedars of Lebanon. He maketh them also to skip like a calf.
The voice of the Lord heweth out flames of fire. The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness;
The Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh. Ascribe unto the Lord.
And in His temple all say, "Glory," Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Allegro ma non troppo

Andante

Call to Worship—Fill Your Hearts with Prayer

Kathryn Daniel

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.
Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.
He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall.
Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful, Have we forgotten our Saviour reigns!
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?
God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.
Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.

Hymn—Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken

(Austrian Hymn)

Francis J. Haydn

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Hail, Thou Gladdening Light Gretchaninoff-Warmens

O thou gladd'ning light, Thou light of Heav'n, of His pure glory poured, Thou Son of God, Jesu Christ, our Lord.
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest; the lights of ev'ning around us shine;
We hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, One, divine!
Most worthy Thou at all times to be sung, with undefiled tongue,
O Son of God!
Source of life alone; Therefore in all the world, Thy glories, Lord, they own.
All Thy glories, O Lord, All Thy glories, Lord, They own!

Hymn—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God (Ein' Feste Burg)

Martin Luther

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Lord Is My Light Horatio W. Parker

The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom then shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?
When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me,
to eat up my flesh; They stumbled and fell.
Though a host of men be laid against me, Yet shall not my heart be afraid;
And though there rose up war against me, Yet will I put my trust in Him.
Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; Have mercy upon me and hear me:
Thou hast been my succor, Leave me not, neither forsake me, O
God of my salvation;
O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and he shall comfort thine heart!
The Lord is my light and my salvation. Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Call to Liberty"

Dr. Paul Austin Wolfe
Minister, The Brick Presbyterian Church,

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

ORGAN RECITAL

Concluding the program in connection with the annual observance of Homecoming will be an organ recital by Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, October 31, at 4:00 o'clock.

The program follows:

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Prelude and Fugue in E minor

This work was composed during the early part of Bach's residence at Weimar. Schweitzer says that "the prelude must stand out as if it were hewn in marble." It is known to organists as the Cathedral Prelude and Fugue because of its grandeur and closely knit structure.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Arioso

The Arioso is better known as a violin solo. Bach also used this lovely melody as a sinfonia to Cantata No. 156. E. Power Biggs has made this organ arrangement.

Myron J. Roberts

Carillon

Myron Roberts, who teaches in the School of Music at the University of Nebraska, has written many colorful and effective works for the organ.

Leon Boëllmann (1862-1897)

Suite Gothique

Introduction—Choral

Minuet

Priere à Notre Dame

Toccata

Boëllmann, a French organist and composer, was a pupil of Gigout and organist at the Church of St. Vincent de Paul in Paris from 1881-1897.

The Suite Gothique is a familiar work which holds one's interest because of wide contrasts in the four movements.

Hugh McAmis

Dreams

A haunting melody, played pianissimo, is followed by a trumpet call which grows to full crescendo and then gives way to a return of the first theme, bringing one back to ethereal quietude.

Hugh McAmis, a gifted American organist and composer, lost his life in World War II.

César Franck (1822-1890)

Choral in A minor, Number 3

Shortly before his death, Franck wrote three chorals which comprise his most important organ works. The A minor is possibly the best known of the three. This composition opens with brilliant running passages, which alternate with the richly harmonized choral. The middle section has a spiritual quality of great beauty. A return to the original toccata style concludes the work.

1948 HOMECOMING

This week end thousands of former students and visitors are returning to the campus for the 1948 Homecoming. The entire University community extends a warm welcome to all these guests for this special occasion, one that is anticipated with the keenest pleasure. It is a time of joyful relaxation, a time to renew old friendships and live again for a few hours in the atmosphere of a college campus.

This year the Homecoming celebration is being conducted along more or less traditional lines, with the gridiron battle between the Blue Devils and Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets the main attraction. There are, however, two features of the program that are entirely new. It is hoped that alumni will greet them with approval.

For the first time in the long history of the annual celebration a Homecoming Queen is being crowned to rule over the festivities. The Homecoming Queen, a student of the Woman's College, is selected by a committee of men undergraduates, who are putting emphasis on personality. The coronation ceremony takes place in Duke Stadium just prior to kick-off time.

The second new feature is a production by Duke Players, student dramatic organization, in Page Auditorium the evening after the Duke-Georgia Tech game. The play is "John Loves Mary" by Norman Krasna, and the presentation will give alumni an opportunity to observe the outstanding work being accomplished by one of the several campus organizations.

A student pep rally and an open house for alumni in the Durham City Armory, the latter sponsored by the Durham County Alumni Association, began the 1948 Homecoming celebration on the eve of the game. Saturday morning is left free for alumni to visit the two campuses, East and West, and view the Homecoming decorations displayed before dormitories and fraternity houses.

The annual barbecue luncheon is served in the Indoor Stadium before game time. This is the one central gathering place of almost all alumni who return. In the past the luncheon has served as an opportunity for old friends and classmates to locate one another.

After the game, for the balance of the afternoon, fraternities hold open houses. The familiar tones of the Duke Chapel Carillon provide background music.

Sunday morning Dr. Paul Austin Wolfe, pastor of The Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City, will deliver the sermon in Duke Chapel. The Homecoming observance ends Sunday afternoon with an organ recital, also in the Chapel.

It is impossible to single out individuals or groups responsible for Duke's 1948 Homecoming success. The credit is shared by many people and many organizations, both of the University and of the City of Durham. Perhaps, however, special mention should be made of those who served on the two general supervisory committees.

The Duke University National Council Committee on Special Occasions is headed by Mrs. Josiah C. Trent, '39, of Durham. Serving with her are George H. (Bob) Welch, Jr., president of the Student Government Association; B. S. Womble, '04, of Winston-Salem; Professor James A. Beal, of Duke; and Robert Guy Deyton, '24, of Raleigh. The Durham Chamber of Commerce Homecoming Committee is headed by M. B. Fowler of Durham, and its members are J. A. Woodall, Gordon Ogburn, Fred Lloyd, and Dante Germino, all of Durham.

It is sincerely hoped that every person in the University community will join in seeing that the alumni and visitors on the campus this week end receive a wholehearted welcome.

ERASMUS CLUB

The Erasmns Club will hold its second meeting of the year on Monday night, November 1, at 8:00 p.m. in Room 201, East Duke Building. Dr. Merle M. Bevington will present a paper on "Jane Austen's Contemporary Readers and Non-Readers." Members are urged to bring with them to this meeting all interested friends and prospective members.

ROMEO AND JULIET

Charles L. Wagner of New York will present the opera. "Romeo and Juliet," in Page Auditorium, Tuesday evening, November 2, at 8:15 o'clock as the first attraction of the year on the All-Star Concert Series. From all reports, this is the finest opera that Mr. Wagner has presented in recent years. Jon Crain, already known to Duke audiences, will sing the part of Romeo. Marguerite McClelland, runner-up in the Miss America Contest, will be Juliet.

Because this is the opening night of the Series, and because the house is entirely "sold out," patrons are advised to arrive early. A limited number of standing room tickets will be sold in Room 201, West Campus Union on Monday and Tuesday. Phone 270 for reservations.

MATHEMATICS SEMINAR TO MEET ON NOVEMBER 3

There will be a meeting of the Mathematics Seminar on Wednesday, November 3, at 4:10 p.m. in Page 206. Mr. M. P. Jarnagin, Jr., will speak on the subject "Transformations on Linear Graphs."

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer

Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud.

Sun of my soul, I cry aloud To Thee for faith and strength to carry on,

Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.

The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day:

To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Before Jehovah's Awe-full Throne (Old 100th)

From Genevan Psalter

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

Luther-Mueller

A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing;

Our helper He, amid the flood Of mortal ills prevailing.

For still our foe Doth seek to work us woe;

And armed with cruel hate, On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing,

Were not the right Man on our side, The Man of God's own choosing.

Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;

Lord Sabaoth, His name, From age to age the same,

And he must win the battle.

Hymn—Lead On, O King Eternal (Lancashire) Henry Smart

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Fear Not, O Israel

Max Spicker

Soloists: Mr. Gordon Reed, Baritone

Miss Jayne Cosby, Contralto

Mr. Dwight Irwin, Tenor

Miss Betty June Hurst, Soprano

Behold! there shall be a day, when the watchman upon the mountain top shall cry aloud:

"Arise ye! Get ye up unto Mount Zion, unto the Lord your God!"
For thus saith the Lord: Fear not now, O Israel, neither be thou dismayed.

Refrain thine voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears;

For I, the Lord, am with thee, and will save thee.

I have loved thee with everlasting love, and have redeemed thee.

Why cryest thou in thine affliction? Why mournest thou in nightly watches?

I have redeemed thee. Therefore thus saith the Lord:

Sing ye aloud with gladness! Thy mourning is turned into joy!

I have redeemed thee. Be glad and rejoice!

Thy sorrows now are ended, and great shall be thy peace.

Rejoice! be glad and rejoice!

Then fear not, O Israel, Neither he thou still dismayed,

I have redeemed thee.

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud.
Sun of my soul, I cry aloud To Thee for faith and strength to carry on,
Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day:
To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Send Forth Thy Spirit Schuetky

Send forth thy Spirit, O Lord, our God eternal! And let the face of earth be renewed. Alleluia!
Come, Thou, Spirit Heavenly, Expand our hearts with faith in Thy Holy name.
And grant us Thy love and Thy mercy, O Lord Thy peace everlasting.

Hymn—O Beautiful for Spacious Skies (Materna) Samuel A. Ward

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Arise, My Soul Van Denman Thompson

Arise, my soul, Put off thy guilty fears; The bleeding sacrifice In my behalf appears:
Before the throne my Surety stands, My name is written on His hands.
He ever lives above, for me to intercede; His all-redeeming love, His precious blood, to plead.
Five bleeding wounds he bears, Received on Calvary:
They pour effectual pray'rs, They strongly plead for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry—"Nor let that sinner die."
The Father hears him pray, His dear anointed One
He cannot turn away The presence of his Son;
My God is reconciled; His pard'ning voice I hear:
He owns me for his child; I can no longer fear.
With confidence I now draw nigh, And "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Baritone Solo—The Great Awakening Kramer
Mr. John P. Waggoner

A beggar stood at the House of God, At the sacred door one morn,
And the wind was sharp with winter's teeth And he shook in his rags forlorn;
The organ peal'd within the church A hymn of warmth and cheer,
And the beggar smil'd as a beggar will Who has no God to fear.
The rich man brush'd him rough aside, The toiler spake awhile,
The widow dropped her widow mite, The courtesan a smile.
The organ peal'd in thunderous praise The saints on flowers trod,
And I look'd beneath the beggar's rags
And there reveal'd stood God!

Call to Worship—All Praise to God the Eternal

All praise to God the Eternal. Bless us, O Father! Glory to God.
Shelter the people and prosper plain folk and rulers. Glory to God.
Bless all our mills, bless our farm lands, Bless all our nation, Glory to God.
Give peace on earth, may Thy laws be held. Holy Father, Glory to Thee!
All praise to God.

Hymn—Now Thank We All Our God (Nun Danket)
Johann Crüger

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—What of the Night? Thompson
Soloist: Mr. Clarence Smith, Baritone

What of the night, O watchman! Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token Of the dawning in the skies!
Or do the shadows linger, Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness That the tarrying morn is come?
Then answer'd the patient watchman From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley, I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon That is growing more wide and clear,
And soon shall the sun be flinging His splendours both far and near.

What of the night, O Watchman! Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into plough-shares heathen, Peace throned ev'rywhere!
Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman, Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last!

Hymn—Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart (Marion)
Arthur H. Messiter

Scripture
Offertory Anthem—Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee
Beethoven

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee Praising Thee their sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.
All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heav'ns reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of loving, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:

Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life.

Anthem—Star of Courage Wolfe

Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
And they were wise Who followed far, The light of courage in a star!
For they were lost beside the sea That has its shores on Galilee
And they were worn and they were chill, Who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!
And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee,
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white! Ah!
As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Hymn—Harken, All! What Holy Singing (Gloria)
Old French Carol

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Shepherds' Story Dickinson

Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
To Bethlem did they go, The Shepherds three: To Bethlem did they go,

Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.
Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
Then to Bethlem town, did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place Heard the oxen low.
Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May, And a fair old man; Upon the straw she lay, And a little child On her arm had she "Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me. Ox and ass him know kneeling on their knee;
Wondrous joy had I This little Bahe to see.

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.

Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.

Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.

With pleasure that can never cloy;
Thus provided, Nothing can our peace destroy.

Anthem—Brother James' Air Arr. by Gordon Jacobs

"Brother James is the familiar name by which many remember James Leith Macbeth Bain, who was born in Scotland towards the middle of the last century and passed away in 1925. Like St. Francis, he combined the spiritual genius of the Mystic with the irresistible charm and trust of the child who loves all men and all creatures. This Air is perhaps the most beautiful of many that came to him spontaneously, and it has, in its simplicity, something of that rare quality of appeal that Maurice Baring describes thus: 'It was a wonderful tune—a tune that opened its arms.'"

Offertory Anthem—In the Name of Our God We Will

In the Name of our God we will set up our banners
Through God we will do great acts and it is He that shall tread down our enemies

Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord Jehovah, and blessed are the folk that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance.

The counsel of the Lord shall endure for ever, the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

Save, Lord and hear us O King of Heaven when we call upon thee.
Be thou exalted Lord, in thine own strength so will we sing and praise thy power.

In the Name of our God we will set up our banners.

The Communion Service has been instituted as a part of the program of the Duke University Church and, as is the custom, all members and friends of the University community are cordially invited to participate.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, February 6, at 4:00 o'clock. The program follows:

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Prelude in G Minor

The G minor prelude, which has been successfully transcribed for piano solo by Alexander Siloti, is especially interesting when played on a large organ. Containing little melodic line, it begins with a four note figure which is carried upward and works to a crescendo in cadenza style. It then follows a downward progression, moving from great to choir manual in echo effect until the final climax.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Miserere from the "St. Matthew Passion"

This lovely aria expresses with deep pathos the words "Have Mercy, Lord." It is arranged for organ by Charles Black.

César Franck (1822-1890) Prelude, Fugue and Variation

The haunting short phrases of the prelude are typical of Franck's melodic gift. Following this movement, there is an interlude of one line which resembles Bach's bridges between sections. The fugue is dignified and well defined with a hint of the original theme used in inversion. The work ends with a lovely variation of the opening melody.

César Franck Pièce Héroïque

The Pièce Héroïque was written for the dedication of the organ in the Trocadero in Paris, 1878. It is martial in spirit, except for a short central section, and closes triumphantly with great chords played on full organ.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937) Divertissement

Louis Vierne wrote a set of 24 Pieces en style libre, each one containing one movement written in a different key and using all of the major and minor keys. The Divertissement is number eleven in the series and is a little scherzo in the key of B flat Major.

Joseph Bonnet (1884-1944) Romance Sans Paroles

This whimsical piece, which is said to have been a favorite of the composer, exemplifies the French spirit of gaiety and lightness.

Bonnet was for many years organist of the Church of St. Eustache in Paris.

Ambroise Thomas (1811-1896) Gavotte from "Mignon"

Onward, ye peoples, strive for the Light! The Light that the Lord bath given us for our guide,
Who through murk and darkness of night Hath led us in safety

See how the fiery pillar is gleaming, Lighting our steps, when dark is the way.
And the Light of the World, It cleaveth the gloomy blackness of night that else would engulf us.
See the cloudy pillar to shield us safe when the sun would hlisten us.
Then forward, where faith revealeth the way! For God is our guide, and He will never fail.
Fires are gleaming, voices are ainging forth from Mount Neboh's heaven-storming height.
Salem! Salem! Hark, they call us upward and on, to our Father's Salem!

Arr. from George F. Handel

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Grieve Not the Holy Spirit of God Stainer
Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are seal'd unto the day of redemption.
Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you with all malice.
And be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, ev'n as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Hymn—More Love to Thee (More Love to Thee)

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Arise, My Soul Van Denman Thompson
Arise, my soul, Put off thy guilty fears; The bleeding sacrifice In my behalf appears:
Before the throne my Surety stands, My name is written on His hands.
He ever lives above, for me to intercede; His all-redeeming love, His precious blood, to plead.
Five bleeding wounds he bears, Received on Calvary: They pour effectual pray'rs,
They strongly plead for me: "Forgive him, O forgive," they cry, "Nor let that ransom'd sinner die."
The Father hears him pray, His dear anointed One, He cannot turn away The presence of his only Son;
My God is reconciled; His pard'ning voice I hear: He owns me for his child; I can no longer fear.
With confidence I now draw nigh, And "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer

Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud. Sun of my soul, I cry aloud

To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.

The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—God Is My Strong Salvation (Aurelia)

Samuel S. Wesley

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Worship

Geoffrey Shaw

O brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother; Where pity dwells,
the peace of God is there;

To worship rightly is to love each other, Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.

Follow with reverent steps the great example Of Him whose holy work was "doing good";

So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple, Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.

Then shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangour Of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;

Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger, And in its ashes plant the tree of peace!

Hymn—I Lay My Sins on Jesus (St. Hilda)

Knecht-Husband

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah)

Max Spicker

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord, the Lord of hosts.

The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.

The Lord is our strength, and our God our salvation,

O praise His name in all the earth,

Thy name is praised and glorified in all the earth.

The Lord our God is one, the Lord our God is King.

He is our Father, He is our Helper, He is our Strength, our Salvation.

The Lord shall reign forever, thy God, O Zion, for evermore.

Hallelujah!

RECITAL FOR ORGAN AND ORCHESTRA

On Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel, Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, and the Duke Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Allan H. Bone, will present a chamber music concert for organ and orchestra.

Following is the program:

Sonata for Seven Brass Instruments

William Klenz

First Movement

Written during the early months of 1948 this composition for two trumpets, two French horns, two trombones, and tuba projects a mood of solemn nobility through the use of coloristic variety and dynamic contrast which are long established principles of brass writing. The composer is a member of the faculty in the Department of Aesthetics, Art, and Music of Duke University.

Ceremonial Music for Organ and Trumpets

Henry Purcell

Voluntary in C major

(1659-1695)

Trumpet Voluntary

Trumpet Tune and Bell Symphony

Trumpets: Norman Nelson and Ted Ziolkowski

The strength and freshness of this seventeenth-century Englishman is not new to present day music lovers. History has marked this short-lived composer as the greatest English talent of that day, not even to be overshadowed by his successor of the eighteenth century, George Frederick Handel.

Paintings of the period frequently depict brass instruments in performance with organ. Purcell's church music often includes string and wind instruments in conjunction with organ, and we may safely assume that for ceremonial occasions at Westminster Abbey the popular trumpets would have joined the composer in his performance of this vigorous music. In this rendition the trumpet tone is used both as a reinforcement of the organ stop and as a contrasting solo color.

Concerto for Organ and String Orchestra Corelli-Malipiero
Adagio-Allegro Adagio-Allegro Allegro

Arcangelo Corelli is recognized as the first great violinist in history and is one of the foremost representatives of the Italian compositional style of his day. Born in Italy in 1653, his concise and lucid formal organization sets the pattern for the Sonata da Camera and Concerto Crosso forms. Thus Corelli exerts his technical knowledge of the violin upon both solo and orchestral forms of string writing.

The present work is from Corelli's Opus 5, published in Rome in 1700, which consists of twelve sonatas for violin with an accompanying fundamental bass. The present arrangement by the contemporary composer Malipiero treats the organ as an occasional solo voice but, for the most part, used it as a continuo to reinforce the bass line and to set off to best advantage the rich combinations of string tone. It is interesting to speculate that Handel himself might well have heard some of Corelli's work when he visited Italy in 1706 at which time he made the acquaintance of the older master.

Five Sonatas for Organ and String Orchestra
Wolfgang Mozart (1756-1791)

- No. 10 in D major (Kochel 245)
- No. 16 in G major (Kochel 241)
- No. 13 in C major (Kochel 328)
- No. 9 in F major (Kochel 244)
- No. 4 in D major (Kochel 144)

The name of Mozart is rarely associated with the organ; yet he held various organ posts during his short lifetime.

In 1777 Mozart was appointed organist to the Cathedral of Salzburg and it was during this four-year tenure that he wrote his fifteen Organ Sonatas for organ and small orchestra. Though these works are the instrument's only inheritance from the composer's pen, they are of such unique charm and beauty that they constitute one of the treasures in the rich organ literature of the centuries. They are so essentially Mozartean as to be worthy of a place in concert performance along with the symphonies.

The sonatas are all one movement in length, and in them Mozart seems to have aimed specifically at a particular tone coloring and effect with the strings in pitch both below and above the organ, the organ itself forming a miniature woodwind ensemble binding all together.

Concerto No. 13, in F major for Organ and String Orchestra
George Frederick Handel (1685-1759)
(The Cuckoo and the Nightingale)
Larghetto-Allegro Larghetto Allegro

To Handel the organ was a vehicle for virtuoso display polished by the perfect simplicity that was his art. Organ and orchestra are played one against the other in solo and ritornello fashion, leaving complete freedom for that improvisational facility within the solo organ which was such a hallmark of Handel's ability as a performer.

O Lord most holy, Plenteous in mercy, O loving Saviour, Who for our sins on the cruel cross didst die,
Our sins confessing, on Thy name we cry Jesu! Holy Redeemer, Fount of all blessing, Hear us, we pray Thee, Lord, he Thou near,
Lead us and guide us, cast out every fear. Now, and when life draws to its closing, Lord have mercy! O loving Saviour Grant us Thy pardon. Amen.

Offertory Anthem—Turn Back O Man Arr. by Gustav Holst
Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways. Old now is Earth, and none may count her days,
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame, Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim "Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!"
Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise, Age after age their tragic empires rise. Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep Earth shall be fair, and all her people one, Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry "Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one!"

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Blossoms and palms in varied beauty vie, Decked is the road with fragrant flow'rs to greet Him.
Jesus has come a world's sad tears to dry—E'en now the throng rush forth with joy to greet Him!
Sing and rejoice with one accord, Sing joyous songs for this sublime ovation! Hosanna!
Prais'd be the Lord Blessed is He who has brought us salvation.
Gently He speaks, the people hear His voice; Freedom returns tho' from the earth long banished.
All in a brotherhood again rejoice Light has returned and dreary darkness vanished.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Fling Wide the Gates, from "The Crucifixion" Stainer

Fling wide the gates! for the Saviour waits To tread in His royal way;
He has come from above, in His power and love, To die on this Passion day.
His Cross is the sign of a love divine, His crown is the thorn-wreath of woe,
He hears His load on the sorrowful road, And bends 'neath the burden low.

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Easter Story Leon F. Brown
Soloist: Mr. Robert Melton, Tenor

The multitude demanded that they crucify The Savior God sent to Earth,
Then they crown'd Him with thorns and lead Him to Calvary,
There they crucified Christ the King.
He was carried away from Calvary and placed in the earthly Sepulcher.
And the door of that lowly resting place was sealed with a mighty stone.
Then there came a great earthquake which heralded the Easter miracle.
And the Angel came from Heaven to roll the stone from the Sepulcher to show that Christ had risen,
He arose from the grave, His pow'r will save, Alleluia.
God's beloved Son hath a vict'ry won, He is risen, Alleluia.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Antiphon on the Litany Alan Floyd
Adore Te Devote Everett Titcomb

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry aloud

To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.

Hymn—All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name (Miles' Lane) William Shrubsole

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—God's Time John Sacco

Wait, I say, on the Lord. To ev'rything there is a season, A time for ev'ry purpose under heaven:

A time to be born, a time to die, a time to pluck up that which is planted, a time to break down, to build up, and a time to laugh, to weep, to dance, and a time to mourn.

To ev'rything there is a season and a time; wait, I say.

There is a time to lose, to keep, and a time of silence, a time to speak, a time to love, time to gather up stones, a time of war, and time, I say unto you, to laugh, weep, lose, and a time of peace.

Be of good courage and believe to see the goodness of the Lord.

In the land of the living, He is the strength of our life.

Our times are in His hands; He is the rock of our defence.

Wait, I say, on the Lord. To ev'rything there is a season and a time.

But send the great Father's promise on us, the Spirit of truth, Thy Spirit.

Alleluia, Amen. King, all glorious, Lord Almighty.

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer

Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry aloud

To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.

The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee (Hymn to Joy)

Arr. from Ludwig van Beethoven

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Hail, Thou Gladdening Light

Gretchaninoff-Warmesen

O thou gladd'ning light, Thou light of Heav'n, of His pure glory poured, Thou Son of God, Jesu Christ, our Lord.

Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest; the lights of ev'ning around us shine;

We hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Holy Ones divine! Most worthy Thou at all times to be sung with undefiled tongue,

O Son of God, Holy art Thou, and worthy to be sung. Source of life alone; Therefore in all the world, Thy glories, Lord, they own!

Hymn—O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee (Maryton)

H. Percy Smith

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—God of the Open Air

Noble Cain

(Dedicated to the Chapel Choir, J. Foster Barues, Director)

These are the things I prize and hold of dearest worth:

Light of the sapphire skies, Peace of the silent hills,

Shelter of forest, Comfort of the grass, Music of birds, murmur of little rills,

Shadows of clouds that swiftly pass, and after showers,

The smell of flowers, And of the good brown earth, And best of all,

Along the way, Friendship and mirth.

So let me keep these treasures of the humble heart in true possession, owning them by love

And when at last I can no longer move among them freely, but must part

From the green fields and waters clear, Let me not creep into some darkened room

And hide from all that makes the world so bright and dear, But throw the windows wide to welcome in the light;

Then, while I clasp some well beloved hand, Let me once more have sight of the far sky

And of the smiling land! Then gently fall on sleep, And breathe my body back to Nature's care, my spirit back to Thee.

God of the open air!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Four Men Who Bear My Name"

Organ—Trumpet Voluntary

Henry Purcell

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, May 1, at 4:00 o'clock. The program, which is composed entirely of the works of Bach, follows:

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH

(1685-1750)

Prelude in D Major

Weimar Period

In this pompous Prelude there is the majesty of the French Overture. The prelude opens with a slow scale passage clearly defining the key in which it is written. After this dignified opening, Bach produces a gay figure written in simple sequence. The figure, which is repeated in various voices, hardly prepares one for the adagio at the close of the prelude. This adagio is an interlude of great depth of feeling and thoughtful use of dissonance.

Pastorale

This work is hardly known, and very seldom performed. It is imbued, nevertheless, with an exquisite poesy and charming simplicity. The ensemble of these four movements presents a happy contrast of impressions and colors. The form bears close resemblance to the French Suites. Leopold Stokowski has made an orchestral transcription of the melodic third movement.

Fugue in E flat Major (St. Anne's)

Leipzig Period

The Fugue in E flat is generally known as the St. Anne because its principal theme is similar to Croft's hymn-tune which we know as "O God, Our Help in Ages Past." The fugue is in three sections, which form Bach probably derived from Buxtehude. Harvey Grace expresses it aptly when he says, "It was left for Bach to apply this triple form in such a way as to obtain at once variety and unity—variety, by three short sections of diverse character, unity in the total effect of one long and logical movement."

Andante

From the Sonata for Solo Violin No. 3

The Andante for solo violin has been transcribed for organ by Ruth Grabam.

Choral Preludes

(a) "O Thou of God the Father"

Cothen Period

In this Prelude, a bass motive is given to the pedal which appears throughout. Schweitzer calls this rhythmic figure "the beatific peace motive." It suggests a state of intimate happiness. The contrapuntal play of the voices in the alto and tenor assist in supporting the atmosphere of this motive. It is a selection of wonderful charm and it would be difficult to find another piece so short which contains its equal in quality.

(b) "I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ"

Cothen Period

This beautiful chorale is in trio form, and each voice speaks its message of faith in God.

(c) "Now Let Us Sing with Joy"

From Twelve Chorale Preludes

Bach used this 14th century melody in dulci júbilo in various settings. This particular setting is brilliant and free in style.

Tocatta and Fugue in D Minor

Weimar Period

Bach wrote this brilliant concert piece during the early part of his maturity. Schweitzer says that here "The strong and ardent spirit has finally realized the laws of form."

GLEE CLUBS TO APPEAR AT SUNDAY NIGHT SING

The Men's Glee Club, the Women's Glee Club, the Triple Trio, and the Triple Quartet will make their last appearance on the campus this season at the Sunday Night Sing in the Woman's College Auditorium Sunday evening, May 1, at 8:00 o'clock. List! the cherubic host, in thousand choirs, Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits that wear victorious palms, Singing everlastingly devout and Holy psalms.
And I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps, And they sang as it were a new song, before the throne,
And no man could learn that song, but they which were redeemed.

Hymn—When I Survey the Wondrous Cross (Hamburg) From a Gregorian Chant

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Now Thank We All Our God Cruger-Mueller

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms, Hath blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today!
O may this hounteous God Thru all our life he near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace, And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills In this world and the next.
All glory be to God For all He hath created,
From us whom He so high Among His works enstated.
To praise Him while we live! And on His will attend,
Until we there arrive Where song shall have no end.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Worship on Sunday morning, May 15, at 11:00 o'clock

The order of service follows:

DR. J. H. PHILLIPS, Presiding Minister

Organ—Suite Gothique
Introduction—Choral
Prière

Boëllmann

Call to Worship—Lead Me, Lord Samuel Wesley
Soloist: Miss Roberta Wurmstich, Contralto
Lead me, Lord, in Thy righteousness, make Thy way plain before my face.
For it is Thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Hymn—I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord (St. Thomas)
From Williams' Psalmody, 1770

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Jesus, Thou Joy of Loving Hearts Poteat
Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts, Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men,
From the blest bliss that earth imparts We turn unfill'd to Thee
again,
We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread, And long to feast upon Thee still;
We drink of Thee, the Fountain Head, And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.
Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood; Thou hearest them that on Thee call;
To those that seek Thee Thou art good, To those who find Thee
all in all.
O Jesus, ever with us stay, Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away, Send o'er the world Thy holy Light,
Come, Thou, joy of loving hearts, Ever, with us stay;
And chase the night of sin away.

Reception of New Members

Offertory Anthem—Lovely Appear from "The Redemption"
Gounod

Soloists: Miss Ella Ann Proctor, Contralto
Miss Lydia Hutchings, Soprano

Lovely appear over the mountains The feet of them that preach, and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down. Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression, In the brightness of joy fade away, and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding, Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound: Void of fear,
undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous doves, wheresoever they fly, Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless cry.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The order of service follows:

DR. ROBERT E. CUSHMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Choral-Preludes

Karg-Elert

"O God, Thou Faithful God"

"Rejoice Greatly, O My Soul"

"Now Thank We All Our God"

Call to Worship—God Is Our Refuge

Barbara Cushman

God is our refuge and our strength, A present help in need;
We, therefore, will not fear or quake, Nor of alarms take heed.

Though mountains crumble into seas And waters pitch and roar,
They trouble not God's city, high Upon the lofty shore.

The holy place of the Most High Is, in her midst, secure.
Though nations rage and kingdoms fall, God's city shall endure.

Behold the works our God hath done: He maketh wars to cease;
Where desolation spread before He reigns, and there is peace.

Be still, and know that He is God. Trust nothing else beside!
The Lord of Hosts is with us yet: Our refuge and our guide.

Hymn—We Gather Together (Kremser)

Arr. by Edward Kremser

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—God So Loved the World

J. F. Hewitt

(Dedicated to the Chapel Choir of Duke University)

Soloist: Mr. John Waggoner, Baritone

God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son
That whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart—with all thy soul—with all thy mind.

This is the first and great commandment And the second is like unto it.

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Hymn—O Where Are Kings and Empires Now (St. Anne)

Probably William Croft

Scripture—I Corinthians 12: 12-27

Offertory Anthem—How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place, from "Requiem"

Brahms

How lovely is Thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts!

For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord;

My soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God.

Blest are they that dwell within Thy house; they praise Thy name evermore!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Individual and the Group"

Professor James T. Cleland

Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.
Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.
He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,
Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful, Have we forgotten our Savior reigns?
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?
God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.
Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Mr. Aldrich Northup, Tenor

Behold! there shall be a day, when the watchman upon the mountain top shall cry aloud:
"Arise ye! Get ye up unto Mount Zion, unto the Lord your God!"
For thus saith the Lord: Fear not now, O Israel, neither be thou dismayed.
Refrain thine voice from weeping and thine eyes, from tears; for I, the Lord, am with thee, and will save thee.
I have loved thee with everlasting love, and have redeemed thee.
Why criest thou, in thine affliction? Why mournest thou in nightly watches?
I have redeemed thee. Therefore thus saith the Lord:
Sing ye aloud with gladness! Thy mourning is turned into joy!
Be glad and rejoice! Thy sorrows now are ended, and great shall be thy peace.
Rejoice! be glad and rejoice!
